Message from the Grand
Knight

Brother
Knights,

Summer is here!! My snow shovels have been taken to the storage shed. Special thanks to Rich Kendall, Chris George, Terry Martin, Marc DeFourny, Mike Overmyer, Greg Taylor, Ed Price, & Bob Brehm for braving the traffic for over 2 hours to raise $1,241 for Special Olympics.

We were presented an award at the Special Olympics games at Whetstone High School on May 11th. It's in the trophy case. Thanks also to all those who participated in the Cash Bonanza Raffle. Over $500 was raised for Sam's Fans.

Dave Davisson has done a great job with the Blood Drive. Our Donut Sunday's have ended until the Fall. Thanks to Deacon Jeffrey for picking up the doughnuts! I miss getting them and being stopped for the train in Linworth. Aroma therapy and they taste sooo good!

We planned to have our council Enthroned to the Sacred Heart of Jesus at our May meeting, but the attendance was light, so it will be done at our June meeting. This is so important for us with all the problems in the Church. Will we stay at the foot of the cross or abandon Jesus and his church?

Information will be available about having your home enthroned. We will also be having our annual election that night. If anyone is interested in being on our leadership team, let me know. There are a couple openings. We welcome your input.

Our new Pastor is Father Sean Dooley. He WILL have our full cooperation and we WILL do whatever he asks of us! THANK YOU to our Pastor and Chaplain Father John for his guidance and his continued support of our council!!

Hope to see you at our Saturday morning men's group learning about the Mass from Bishop Barron or at our meeting on the June 18th at 7:00. Yes 7:00 after the Rosary after 5:30 Mass.

In His Honor,
Bob Brehm, Grand Knight

St. William of York
Bishop
1085-1154
June 8

St. William of York, Bishop (Feast day is the day of his death, June 8th). William of York was the son of Count Herbert, treasurer to English King Henry I. His mother Emma, was the half-sister of King William. Young William became treasurer of the church of York at an early age and was elected Archbishop of York in 1140.

William's election was challenged by the Cistercians on the grounds of simony. He was cleared by Rome, but later, a new Pope, the Cistercian Eugene III, suspended William, and in 1147, he was deposed as archbishop of York.

William then retired to Winchester where he led the austere life of a monk. Upon the death of his accusers and Eugene III, Pope Anastastius IV restored William his See and made him archbishop. However, after one month back in York, the saintly prelate died in the year 1154.

Some claim he was poisoned by the archdeacon of York. The archdeacon was called to trial by the King but the King died before the trial could be held. Pope Honorius canonized William in 1227.

Our Lady of Peace History

Father George H. Foley

The Founding Pastor of Our Lady of Peace was Father George Herbert Foley. Father Foley was born in Roxbury, Mass. July 22, 1905, the son of George H. and Agnes Dowling Foley. He attended Boston College High School; Boston College; St. John's Seminary in Boston; and Mount St. Mary's Seminary in Emmitsburg, Md. He was ordained April 13, 1932 in St. Joseph Cathedral, Columbus, Ohio by the late Bishop James J. Hartley.

His first parish assignment was as assistant pastor at St. Joseph's Cathedral where he served from 1932 until 1942. He was then appointed pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Sugar Grove, Ohio from 1942 until 1946. While at Sugar Grove he also served as chaplain of the Boys Industrial School in Lancaster, Ohio.

He was appointed Founding Pastor of Our Lady of Peace Parish on February 1, 1946 and served in that capacity until his death in 1965. In addition, he served as Chaplain to the Columbus Police and Fire Departments from 1932 until 1951.

Father George Foley died at Mt. Carmel Hospital on February 2, 1965 at the age of 59. He was survived by his sister, Agnes Foley of Columbus and his brother Joseph Gibson Foley of Miami, Florida.

His funeral was held at Our Lady of Peace Church on Saturday, February 6, 1965 where a Solemn Pontifical High Mass was celebrated by Columbus Bishop Edward G. Hettinger. Father Foley was buried in St. Joseph Cemetery, Columbus, Ohio.
