Message from the Grand Knight

Brother Knights,

We are taught that Lent is a time of reflection, prayer, and fasting. A time for us to consider the ways in which we may grow closer to God. For me the greater challenge is being disciplined enough to follow through with the actions, or commitments I make, that will grow me closer to our Lord. The one request that I have, is that what ever promise or commitment I have made for Lent, I will continue after Easter.

I am reminded of a good friend of mine with whom I worked, a lovely person. Every Lent she would give up chocolate of every kind, chocolate candy, ice cream, etc. Once Easter arrived, she would go back to eating chocolate...Really? As a child I suppose I did the same thing. I would give up candy, chocolate, sweets, etc. On Easter Sunday, I was eating chocolate eggs, jelly beans, and biting off the chocolate bunny ears. Was there any sacrifice? I am not sure what I learned in those days. Today, I am working to get better. I plan to follow the lead of the Lord and look forward to the Joy of Easter Sunday!

This March, let's remember to honor St Joseph. The Feast Day of St Joseph is March 19th. We remember Joseph as a carpenter and the step-father to Jesus. Going on Faith, he married Mary, and delivered her to Bethlehem where she gave birth to our Savior Jesus. Joseph was said to be a "just" man. He was completely open and obedient to what God wanted. Beyond the story of Christmas, there was not a great deal said about Joseph. However, in the readings Joseph is said to be righteous; he was faithful; he was courageous; and he was said to be very kind. Above all He was a man of faith; an example to all of us men.

I hope to see all of you at the Knights Pasta Dinner on Friday, April 3rd.

Steve Gauntner, Grand Knight

St. Enda of Aran
Irish Abbot
and Monk
? – 530 AD
March 21

Enda was born in Ireland and the son of a lord of a large territory in the north of Ireland. According to legend, he was a military man, known for his great feats and fierceness in battle. His sister, Saint Fanchea, abbess of Killaine, convinced him to leave the army, settle down, and marry. Taking her advice, he went to his fiancée only to find out she had died while he was away in battle.

Enda decided to live out the remainder of his life as a monk.

Later he traveled to Rome, and was eventually ordained a priest. When he returned to Ireland, he built churches at Drogheda in County Louth.

Since his brother-in-law was King Oengus of Munster, Enda requested from him the island of Aran, the largest of three islands off the western coast of County Galway, where he built a great monastery.

So many pious disciples were trained in the monastery that the island came to be called "Aran of the Saints." Ten other churches were built there.

Along with Saint Finnian of Clonard, Enda is considered the founder of monasticism in Ireland. His feast day is March 21.

Today, St. Enda is the patron saint of the Aran Islands. In fact, each of the three islands was a center of monasticism and learning in the early Middle Ages and was home to numerous saints, both men and women.

Said by the Pope

"No one, however weak, is denied a share in the victory of the Cross. No one is beyond the help of the prayer of Christ."

Pope Leo I

Annual Clergy Appreciation Dinner

The Annual Clergy Appreciation Dinner was held at Villa Milano on Sunday, February 9, 2020. This was a chance for all KofC Councils to let the Clergy know how much we appreciate their service and how much we value the work they do for us every day.

The OLP Knights support our clergy and we appreciate their service to our parish.

New Director Needed!

Monsignor Edward McFarland's Annual Lenten Challenge

The Holy Season of Lent is upon us as we prepare ourselves for His resurrection at Easter. We are reminded about the challenge offered us by our late brother Monsignor Edward McFarland who, each year, would challenge OLP parishioners with the question, "Will you be a better person on Easter than you were on Ash Wednesday?"

Happy St.
Patrick's Day!
